ArtBridge Fellowship

In partnership with METHOD Gallery and Chihuly Garden and Glass, Pratt Fine Arts Center is pleased to offer the ArtBridge Fellowship, an award that provides a variety of educational resources, professional development opportunities, and Pratt studio access to an emerging artist in Washington State. The ArtBridge Fellowship supports the creation of new work and equips the artist with the tools to advance to the next level in his/her professional journey.

Fellowship Award: Over the duration of the award year, which runs September 1, 2018 through August 31, 2019, the ArtBridge Fellowship includes:

- $1,500 credit at Pratt Fine Arts Center to apply towards class/workshop registrations and related supply fees, and studio/equipment access fees *
- Master level membership at Pratt Fine Arts Center
- $1,000 materials stipend paid directly to the artist
- Sponsored attendance in Artist Trust's Art Business Night School Program: Professional Development for Visual Artists (exact dates TBD)
- $300 reimbursement for professional photography services
- Yearlong mentorship and guidance from METHOD Gallery in preparation for a culminating solo exhibition
- An exhibit at METHOD Gallery mid-2019

Furthermore, all partners will make every possible effort to promote the recipient's work and ensure maximum public exposure throughout the experience.

About the Artist Trust Art Business Night School Program: Art Business Night School, based on Artist Trust's long-running EDGE Professional Development Program, is a series of workshops for artists of all disciplines on the business of being an artist.

About METHOD Gallery:

The mission of METHOD is to foster and exhibit sculpture and installation that regards process, material, and concept, while engaging the gallery space. METHOD is a non-profit gallery, fiscally sponsored by Shunpike, a 501 (c) (3) non-profit agency that provides independent arts groups in Washington State with the services, resources, and opportunities they need to forge their own paths in sustainable success. Eligibility: The ArtBridge Fellowship is open to emerging visual artists, aged 18 years and older, who currently reside in Washington State. Board, advisory board, and staff members of any of the partner organizations, as well as Pratt instructors, are not eligible to apply.

Application Evaluation: Applications will be reviewed by a committee of representatives from all presenting organizations and will include artists and arts professionals. The scholarship will be awarded to the applicant who demonstrates exceptional promise, and whose past work and exhibition activities show strong potential and dedication to a career in art. The recipient's proposal will clearly articulate the anticipated educational impact of the award, including a specific project to be pursued using Pratt's facilities during the Fellowship year. Applicants should also clearly describe how their award year might translate into an exhibition at METHOD Gallery.
