

Art Education

3,693
total class
registrations

11,221
hours of high-quality instruction

648
classes in 14
different studios

average class size =
6 students

Youth Engagement

829
youth and teens served (up 10% over prior year)

205
free youth and
teen registrations

Student Assistance

$26,079
awarded in merit-based scholarships

$14,090
awarded in need-
based tuition assistance
(up 70% over prior year)

Employment

127
teaching artists
employed

16
master artists contracted
for specialty workshops

Studio Access

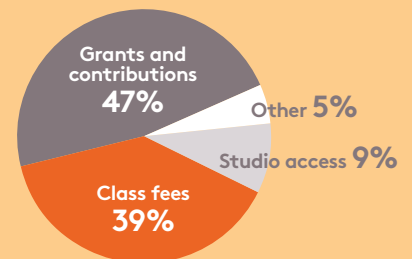

862
independent artists
currently have shared
access to our studios

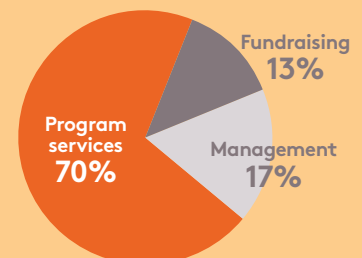

5,524
hours of glassblowing
by independent artists
this year (record high)

Financial Overview

Total Revenue:
$2.72M
(up 17% over prior year)

Total Expenses:
$2.36M

Invested fund balance: $1,429,237

Commitment to Racial Equity

Pratt Fine Arts Center is committed to racial equity as a core value and ongoing practice. We at Pratt recognize that institutional racism, through conscious and unconscious practices, creates vast disparities in access to publicly funded services, including arts education and support for artists. We commit to allocating resources to the breakdown of systemic barriers and the development of equitable solutions organization-wide.