Scholarship Background:
This scholarship was founded by and named in honor of artists Jenny Pohlman and Sabrina Knowles to provide ongoing art opportunities for Seattle’s high school students, with particular emphasis on providing opportunities for high school students who would not otherwise have access to Pratt classes. They continue to support this scholarship through a donation of art to Pratt’s annual auction.

Award Description:
Selected students will be awarded a scholarship for a specific class at Pratt Fine Arts Center. The scholarship may be used for classes, teen art weeks, and workshops in any of Pratt’s studios.

Eligibility:
This scholarship will be awarded to students based on their interests. Pratt board members and their families, as well as Pratt staff, are not eligible to apply.

Application Requirements:
All applications must include a completed scholarship application form submitted either online, by email, or mailed to the address below, and a typewritten essay, not to exceed one page, answering the following questions:

- Describe your interests in art and Pratt.
- What class would you like to take and why?
- Is there anything else about yourself you would like us to know?

Additional Requirements:
- Scholarship applicant must attend a scheduled informal meeting with the Youth and Teen Manager before the scholarship is approved
- A written thank you letter for the scholarship donors upon the completion of the scholarship class.

DEADLINE: APPLICATIONS ARE ACCEPTED THROUGHOUT THE YEAR ON A ROLLING BASIS.
